Dear [Name],

Pall Mall
April 6, 1870

In view of the recent affair at the Metropolitan Union I write to express my deep sympathy for yourself & family at the loss of your beloved. The meeting at a reading room on Monday last occasionally appeared as your only loss to us, but it is clear we have lost a valuable member of the community. I am sorry to hear of the loss.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

when it was proposed seconded and carried that W. Puller get £1 0-0 as a gratuity and not as accident. Pay. An amount was also moved and carried that he receive £1 19-6, a question arose as to whether a two-thirds majority was necessary to pass either of these sums of money, when it was sustained by vote of the meeting that a simple majority was sufficient.
And on the amendment to motion being put to the meeting the motion was seconded, that Mr. Pullen move £1 0 0 as a gratuity.

A notice of motion by Mr. Mr. Carney that the question of members having broken Rule (43) be dealt with at the meeting was then read, and after some discussion it was decided that the matter be decided at this meeting.

Mr. Carney opened a very animated discussion by stating particulars of the case referred to, and after a reply on the part of the members charged for further discussion it was decided by a majority, that the 12 members named were guilty of having broken Rule (43) an extension of time was granted to allow of the settling of this question.

It was then proposed and agreed that the 12 members who had broken the above mentioned Rule be fined £2 0 0 each, and an amendment that they be fined £1 1 0 but on being put to the meeting the motion was carried that they be fined £6 6 0 by a majority of nine (9). The meeting was adjourned to the next ordinary monthly meeting.

These members have been confirmed, with the exception of a notice of motion by Mr. Carney accusing members of breaking Rule (43) that motion being left over so as to allow of an appeal from the accused members being considered.

Business in connection with Mr. Copeland’s funeral was then brought forward; the scarcity of work, causing a discussion to arise as to the proceeds of sales, and the payment of the same; when the Treasurer still held that made the Rand offer to loan 30£ for sale, but which was refused.

The Report was then received from the committee appointed to draw up design and cost of W. J. Reid Stand. Mr. P. Gray produced designs for the meeting, the cost of same to be 8£ 10£ which was adopted.

It was then put that Mr. Gray receive material and make the same

Business was then brought forward regarding the rate and the rule dealing with hemp and cable shales. When it was stated that Mr. Smith be summoned to attend the next Committee night for further explanation.

Information was then received of more and other non-union men in the employ of Mr. Smith doing shipwrights work and after a few comments on the matter.

It was resolved that the President and Secretary be appointed as deputes to interview Colonel Smith. The copy of rules which were an discussion at last meeting were again brought forward but still did not seem to gain the full approval of the meeting for the present, and in a certain paragraph being read to the meeting by the President which had appeared in the rules relative to a decision arrived at in New South Wales with shipwrights versus joiners.

It was resolved that the Secretary to communicate with Mr. Smith on the matter, meanwhile, the rules to lay in abeyance pending information received.

Respectfully, 23rd. 1810

President. S. Mitchell
