

PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES

THE ANU INSTITUTE FOR INDIGENOUS AUSTRALIA,
THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES & LAW,
AND RECONCILIATION AUSTRALIA PRESENT

THE INAUGURAL ANU RECONCILIATION LECTURE

RECONCILIATION – BEYOND THE BRIDGES & SORRY

Patrick Dodson

Tuesday 25 May 2004, 6–7pm
The Great Hall of Parliament House, Canberra

RSVP: rsvpdodson@law.anu.edu.au
Enquiries: Anna.Damiano@anu.edu.au T: 02 6125 6708

In presenting the Inaugural ANU Reconciliation Lecture, Patrick Dodson will reflect on proposed changes in Federal Indigenous affairs policy, and urge Australians who believe in reconciliation to place the issue back at the top of the national agenda.

Widely recognised as the 'father of reconciliation' in Australia, Mr Dodson is a national leader in the search for a resolution of differences between Australia's Aboriginal people and their non-Aboriginal brothers and sisters. He is founding chair of the Lingiari Foundation.

Supported by Reconciliation Australia

