STAFF CHANGES

Dr T.B. Millar, Executive Officer of the Centre, was absent on study leave from May 1968, and Professor H.N. Bull acted as Executive Officer in his place.

Dr I. Bellany took up his appointment as Research Fellow attached to the Centre, as from 16 January 1968, and began a study of the question of an Australian nuclear force. Mr J.J. Bryant, Senior Investigating Officer in the New Zealand Treasury, was a Visiting Fellow with the Centre from 16 February to 11 April, and studied Australian-New Zealand cooperation in the field of defence supply.

STUDY GROUPS

A study group was set up early in the year to consider Australia and Nuclear Weapons, and to assist Dr I. Bellany in preparing his book-length study, referred to above. Another study group was set up at the end of the year to consider Asian Security in the 1970's. University staff from a number of different disciplines have taken part in meetings of the study group, which have also been attended by officials from relevant government departments.

CANBERRA PAPERS ON STRATEGY AND DEFENCE

A new series of occasional papers arising out of the work of the Centre was inaugurated during the year, and has created considerable public interest. Details of the first papers are given below.

MAJOR CONFERENCE

A conference lasting two and a half days was held at Victoria University, Wellington at the beginning of February, on the subject of Australian-New Zealand defence co-operation. It was attended principally by members of the ANU and Victoria University. The conference was private, but an edited report of the proceedings was published by ANU Press in November. Papers given are as follows:

1. New Zealand attitudes to South-east Asia, the Pacific and Australia
   Mr W. Murphy, Victoria University

2. Australian considerations of threats to her security
   Dr P.J. Boyce, University of Tasmania

3. The economics of defence in New Zealand
   Mr J.V.T. Baker, Government Statistician NZ

4. Industry and defence in Australia
   Mr A. Hunter, ANU

5. The role of defence science in New Zealand
   Professor J. Duncan, Victoria University

6. New Zealand, Australia, and nuclear weapons
   Professor H. Bull, ANU

7. Some political problems of closer trans-Tasman defence co-operation
