

SECTION
of
SHELL BANK.
on the Land of the AAC^o
near the mouth of the
MYALL RIVER
PORT STEPHENS

Contents about 76,000 bushels of shell deposit

○ Hole 4 Inches deep

◇ Hole 24 Inches deep

○ Hole 4 inches deep

○ Hole 18 inches deep

○ Hole 6 inches deep

□ Kiln of Lime

□ Kiln of shells

fallen trees roots
covered with shells

Large but not the deepest deposit
here

Shells 27 in deep cleaner and better than below

Shells almost pure 7 Bushels unsifted
to 6 Bushels sifted

A space ^{feet} 57 x ^{feet} 30 dug out about 2000 bushels of shells were taken to burn at C

B Space ^{feet} 133 x ^{feet} 28 (average width) from which about 4000 bushels have been taken to is kiln of lime of about 1000 bushels ready for shipment

Zone of High water

Cory Cory Creek

North Channel of the Mouth of the Myall River

Shoal water navigable for boats only, at high tide

C. Darby
Sun 26 17 ad. 1854