

ONCAMPUS

How is ANU responding to coronavirus?

The Australian Government recently implemented new travel restrictions which have impacted some members of our community. Our priorities are to ensure the wellbeing of our community and minimise disruption to our students' studies. Please visit the coronavirus webpage for more details.

» Check this page regularly for updates on the coronavirus

Keep up-to-date on the hailstorm clean up

We've put together a comprehensive page for those who have been affected by the recent hailstorm that hit the campus.

» Check this page regularly for updates as the clean-up continues

Draft Reconciliation Action Plan

The draft of the University's Reconciliation Action Plan for 2020 to 2021 is open for feedback from staff and students. Have your say before 28 February, 2020.

» Take me to the draft Reconciliation Action Plan

University House FAQs

One of the buildings to be significantly affected from the hailstorm was University House. At this stage it's expected the cafe and beer garden will reopen on Friday. Please check their website and these FAQs for more information.

» Take me to the FAQs

Do you have the ANUOK app on your smartphone?

Over recent weeks you'll have noticed that we've been keeping you up-to-date on the status of issues including campus closures and the hailstorm. But if you don't have access to your email, it may be tough to know what's going on. That's where the ANUOK app comes in handy. Not just for students, the app includes an array of information at your fingertips in one portable location.

» I'd like to download the ANUOK app

In other news

Given the difficult start to 2020, the ANU Library Service has decided to waive all fines issued for late returns during January.

Kambri's Joplin Lane, or 'the Lane', will become a pedestrian only zone from Monday 3 February.

The School of Art & Design's main gallery is still open and unaffected by the recent storm damage. Head along to their newest exhibition 'More than Human' which opens Wednesday 12 February at 6pm.

What's on in 2020? Here's a link to planned activities for the entire University community. Be sure to save this to your browser for regular checking.

Come along to the State of the University address to hear our new Chancellor, The Hon Julie Bishop and Vice-Chancellor Professor Brian Schmidt provide an update on campus about the University's vision for 2020 to 2025.

Help us to welcome our newest cohort of students to ANU at the 2020 Commencement Address on Monday 17 February.

Discover who from within our community was recognised in the 2020 Australia Day honours.

A leadership group has been formed to coordinate requests to ANU for bushfire-related support.

Koalas displaced and injured by Australia's bushfire crisis are being cared for and housed temporarily at ANU.

Find us on

For all the latest news, follow our 'ANU On Campus' page on facebook or head to anu.edu.au/news.

Want to contribute to OnCampus? Please send story submissions to on.campus@anu.edu.au or phone Internal Communications on 02 6125 0259.

The Australian National University, Canberra | CRICOS Provider : 00120C | ABN : 52 234 063 906 | Privacy Policy