The Open Access to Knowledge (OAK) Law Project

Kylie Pappalardo
Research Assistant
OAK Law Project
Queensland University of Technology
k.pappalardo@qut.edu.au

The project is funded by a Department of Education, Science and Training grant as part of the Federal Government’s Systematic Infrastructure Initiative (SII) and is funded as part of the Backing Australia’s Ability – An Innovation Action Plan for the Future.
A Guide to Developing Open Access Through Your Digital Repository

Considerations –

Who can deposit?
What material can be included?
Who can access material in the repository?
Rights of reuse?
A Guide to Developing Open Access Through Your Digital Repository

Legal Frameworks –

Copyright ownership and permissions

Licences and warranties

Repository Deposit Licence
End User Licence
Creative Commons Licence
A Guide to Developing Open Access Through Your Digital Repository

Management Frameworks –

Advocacy
  Raising awareness
  Addressing concerns

Organisation, management and preservation

Allocating responsibility Available at:

www.oaklaw.qut.edu.au

For hard copy, send email with number of copies required and postal address to:

Kylie Pappalardo
k.pappalardo@qut.edu.au