In carrying out the field work in Goulburn, and later in analysing and writing up the material, I became indebted to the help of a number of people. The field work and analysis were carried out under the direction of Professor S.F. Nadel. I am also pleased to acknowledge the generous co-operation of the people of Goulburn, both European and Australian, of the Kenmore Mental Hospital, the Pacific Chenille-Craft Factory, the Commonwealth Department of Immigration, the Department of Railways, the N.S.W. Bureau of Statistics and Economics and the Department of Labour and National Service. I should also like to take this opportunity of recording my appreciation of the interest and help of the following people: Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Laws, Mrs. M. Bozic, Mrs. T. Stern, Mr. H. Fallding, Dr. C.A. Price and Mr. Noel Butlin.
