

FRENCH IB 1994: Evaluation questionnaire

You should not sign this. Please return it promptly to Madeleine, Rm 1189.

1. Set texts

Were there too many? too few? Is there enough variety?
Are any of them too difficult?
Were there any you especially liked/disliked/found boring?

Essays on the set texts

Were there too many?
Is the word limit of about 1000 words too long? too short?
Have you any other comments on the set texts?

2. The "dossiers"

Were there any that you specially liked/disliked?

Name any subject that you would like to see included in the "dossiers".

3. Written work

Are the written exercises too difficult? boring?
Are there too many? too few?
Was there enough variety in the written language work?

4. Oral work

Was the streaming useful?
Are you able to speak better French than at the start of the year?
Should there be more speaking?

5. Grammar

Should the topics covered be more elementary? more advanced?

6. Assessment

Do you think the assessment arrangements are fair? unfair?

Are the weightings balanced? unbalanced?

Did you find the teachers' judgment of your work:

 accurate? inaccurate? generous? ungenerous?

Comment on any other aspect of the assessment:

7. Classes

Give your opinions of the teaching in these five series of classes:

 literature

 "dossiers"

 written language

 grammar

 oral

8. The teachers:

Have you a comment on teachers' attitudes to students in class or out of it?

9. The unit as a whole:

What does it contain that it shouldn't?

What doesn't it contain that it should?

Has your French improved as a result of taking this unit?

Could you have improved more if some things had been different?
If so, what things?

Is there a proper balance between oral and written work?

Was the unit well organised?

Would you recommend the unit to others?
Why? Why not?

Add here any comments on anything not covered above.