

The International Academy for Systems and Cybernetic Sciences

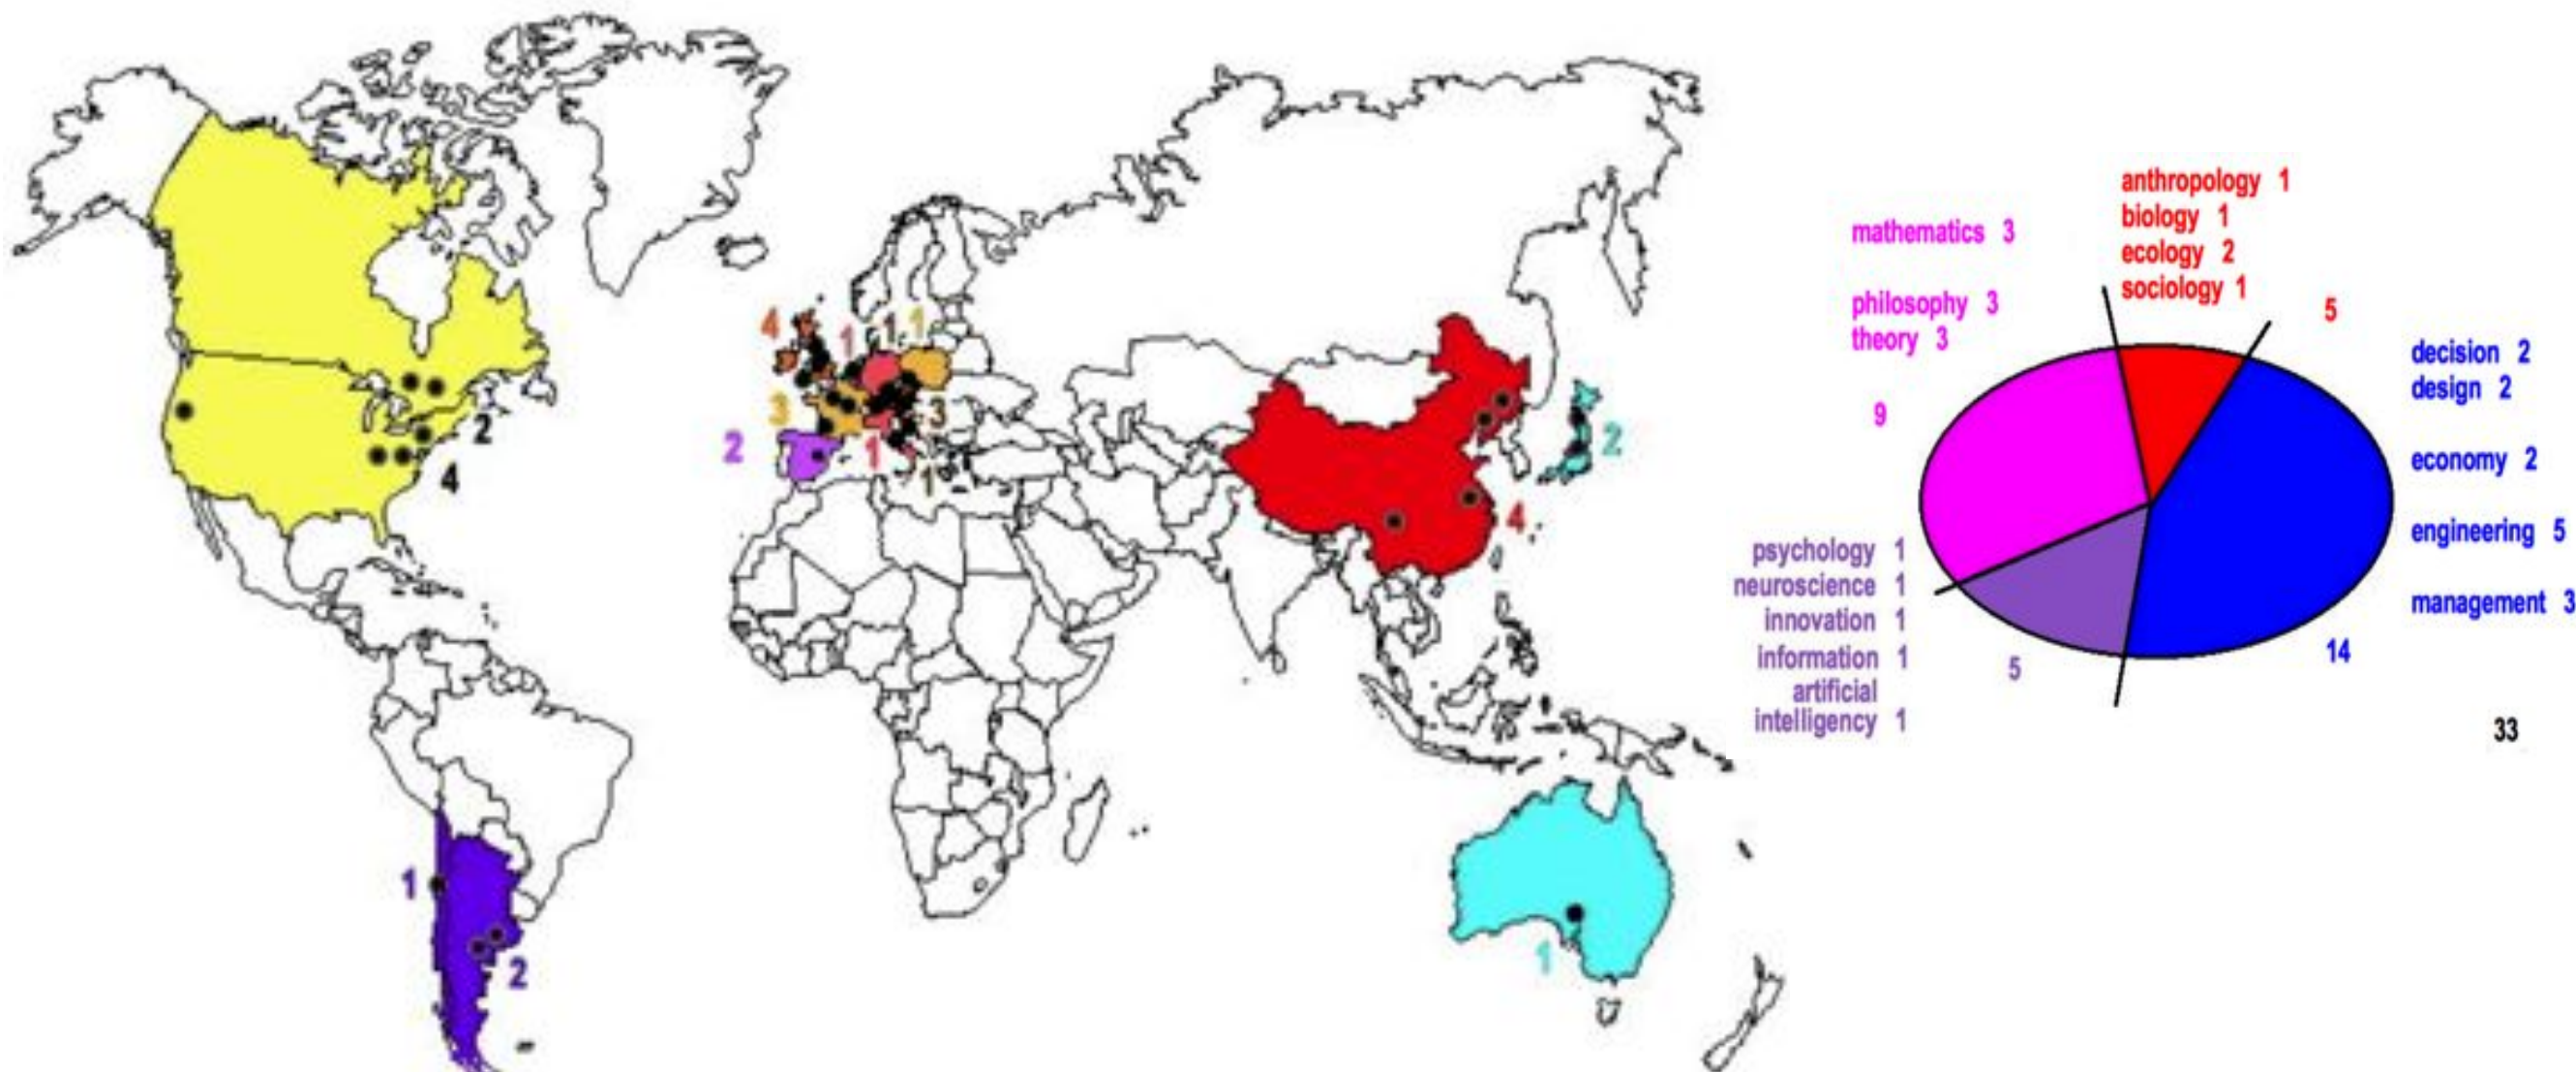

<http://iascys.org>

There are some 30,000 professionals in the area of systems and cybernetics theory & application in the world

IASCYS main purposes are:

- to honour very distinguished authors in the area of systemics and cybernetics;
- to make the movement of systemic behaviour stronger, because it can offer an essential help to humankind that needs more than a one-sided behaviour to overcome the current crises without war on the global level;
- to influence the current civilisation.

The current members are:

Mary Catherine BATESON	Ockert J. H. BOSCH	Pierre BRICAGE
Pille BUNNELL	Antonio CASELLES	Guangya CHEN
Gerhard CHROUST	Charles FRANCOIS	Ranulph GLANVILLE
Jifa GU	Enrique HERRSCHER	Wolfgang HOFKIRCHNER
Michael JACKSON	Louis H. KAUFFMAN	Kyoichi J. KIJIMA
Ervin LASZLO	Humberto MATURANA	Edgar MORIN
Matjaz MULEJ	Yoshiteru NAKAMORI	Francisco PARRA-LUNA
Laurence D. RICHARDS	Bernard SCOTT	George SOROS
Robert TRAPPL	Stuart UMPLEBY	Robert VALLÉE
Ernst VON GLASERSFELD	Shouyang WANG	Andrzej P. WIERZBICKI
Jennifer WILBY	Juping XU	Rainer E. ZIMMERMANN

All of them were suggested by an association from a federation of associations.

There are three international federations of such associations:

IFSR (<http://www.ifsr.org/>) 30 years old and located in Vienna, Austria.

EUS-UES (<http://www.ues-eus.eu/>) member associations, mostly from French, Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese language areas.

WOSC (<http://www.wosc.co/>) beyond 30 years old.

IASCYS serves as a bridge between them.

IASCYS Executive Committee (Vienna, Austria, 2012)

