Dear Mr. Lake:

His trouble was homosexuality; his main love
they say was a Frenchman who was killed in 1915.
When I first knew him in 1916, ~~about~~ he was a perfect dandy and wore green shadowing under his eyes.

This is not to say that he was a practicing homosexual; I say much softer it.

I should have loved to see the University play
at Harvard in the "Eagles" when T.S.E. played the Duke of E.E. Cummings (the latter part) played the ~~re~~ postman.

Yours r.s.

This is not to say that he was a practising homosexual; I very much doubt it.

I should have loved to see the University play at Harvard in the "Earlies" when T.S.E. played the Duke & E.E. Cummings (the better poet) played the footman.

Yours v.s.
