CLASSIFICATION OF OCCUPATIONS
1911.

CENSUS OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA, 1911.

CLASSIFICATION OF OCCUPATIONS;

WITH

I N D E X.

G. H. KNIBBS, C.M.G.

(FELLOW OF THE ROYAL STATISTICAL SOCIETY, ETC.)

COMMONWEALTH STATISTICIAN

So Authorized:

J. KEMP, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, MELBOURNE.

CLASSIFICATION OF OCCUPATIONS.

DEFINITION OF PRINCIPAL CLASSES.

Section A.—Breadwinners.

Classes.

I. PROFESSIONAL—

Embracing all persons, not otherwise classed, mainly engaged in the government and defence of the country, and in satisfying the moral, intellectual, and social wants of its inhabitants.

II. DOMESTIC—

Embracing all persons engaged in the supply of board and lodging, and in rendering personal services for which remuneration is usually paid.

III.—COMMERCIAL—

Embracing all persons directly connected with the hire, sale, transfer, distribution, storage, and security of property and materials.

IV. TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATION—

Embracing all persons engaged in the transport of persons or goods, or in effecting communication.

V. INDUSTRIAL—

Embracing all persons, not otherwise classed, who are principally engaged in various works of utility, or in specialities connected with the manufacture, construction, modification, or alteration of materials so as to render them more available for the various uses of man, but excluding, as far as possible, all who are mainly or solely engaged in the service of commercial interchange.

VI. AGRICULTURAL, PASTORAL, MINERAL, AND OTHER PRIMARY PRODUCERS—

Embracing all persons mainly engaged in the cultivation or acquisition of food products, and in obtaining other raw materials from natural sources.

VII. INDEPENDENT—

Embracing all persons of independent means having no specific occupation.

Section B.—Dependents: Non-Breadwinners.

VIII. DEPENDENTS—

Embracing all persons dependent upon relatives or natural guardians, including wives, children, and others not otherwise engaged in pursuits for which remuneration is paid; and all persons depending upon private charity, or whose support is a burthen on the public revenue.

CLASSIFICATION OF OCCUPATIONS.

NOTE.—All persons who are both producers and dealers or sellers are classed as producers only, under Class VI. All persons who are both manufacturers and dealers are grouped as industrial, under Class V., but all commercial travellers and other purely commercial employes are grouped as Commercial, under Class III., whether employed by dealers or manufacturers.
