 Dear Clifford

Sorry to bother you again about our DEST returns, but we have been queried with respect to the following publications. In each case what is required is a statement from you supporting our claiming these publications for 2007. Although you are still a staff member on leave without pay, that isn't enough for the Research Office and the staff there are checking the actual publications for acknowledgements.

Would you mind endorsing the statement below? If you send a reply to this email that will make it easier.

Thanks again!

Paulina
