1. Introduction

This information paper contains the prices of planned 1986 Census output products. Further editions of this information paper will be produced as prices change or additional output products become available. If you wish to receive future editions of this information paper, please complete order form PC86/14 (Publications Mailing List Request Form-Census Products Price List)—see Appendix B.

For information concerning the prices of output products from previous censuses, contact the nearest ABS office (see Appendix A for addresses and telephone numbers).

Census output for which a charge is usually made may be provided free of charge to selected users on request. However, if such users require output in hardcopy form where such output is available on microfiche, normal charges will be applied.

For information concerning eligibility for free provision of census output, contact the nearest ABS office (see Appendix A for addresses and telephone numbers).

Although the ABS offers these free services, resources are limited. For this reason, all requests must be cost-justified and be authorised by a senior executive or equivalent.

PLEASE CHECK THAT THIS IS THE LATEST EDITION OF THIS PUBLICATION.

* Available on the basis of census count at place of enumeration or census count at place of usual residence. # Most tables are available on the basis of census count at place of enumeration and some tables are available on the basis of census count at place of usual residence.

NOTE: All files fit onto one reel of magnetic tape for both densities (63 RPmm and 246 RPmm) except the Census 86 — Collection District Summary File (2190.0) which requires 7 reels at 63 RPmm and 4 reels at 246 RPmm, and some cross-classified tables. Prices have been calculated so that data/copying costs are identical, regardless of which density is used.

7. Special data services

There are three types of special data services:

- non-standard cross-classified tables;
- tabulations and choropleth maps from the small area data base; and
- other services (such as tabulations requiring special computer programs).

To obtain a firm quotation for the particular service required, please contact the nearest ABS office (see Appendix A for addresses and telephone numbers).

The price for each service will, however, take account of the following factors:

clerical time	19.90 per hour
programmer time	26.50 per hour
CPU time	40.00 per minute
microfiche (new)	7.50 per fiche
computer printout	0.10 per sheet
photocopies	0.25 per page
magnetic tape — ABS 'for sale' blank	16.00 per reel
magnetic tape service charge	20.00 per reel

The costs listed above are an indication only of the costs which might be involved.

8. Further information

If you require further information about the prices of 1986 Census output, please contact the nearest ABS office (see Appendix A for addresses and telephone numbers).
