EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bulletin contains detailed information regarding registrations of new motor vehicles and of motor vehicles on register.

Registrations of New Motor Vehicles

2. Original and seasonally adjusted registrations of new motor vehicles are shown in Table I which is the only table showing figures on a monthly basis. In the seasonal adjustment, account has been taken not only of normal seasonal factors but additionally of "trading-day" effects (arising from the varying number of Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays, etc., in the month) and the influence of Easter which may, in successive years, affect figures for different months. The two component series "Motor cars and station wagons" and "Other vehicles" are each adjusted separately and the adjusted figures for "Total" registrations are obtained by adding together the two component series. Details of the methods used in seasonally adjusting the component series are shown in Seasonally Adjusted Indicators, 1972 (Reference No. 1.10) issued on 6 July 1972.

3. The statistics in this bulletin are derived from information as recorded on registration documents. The figures include diplomatic and consular vehicles and all Commonwealth-owned new vehicles other than those belonging to the defence services. Although the position varies from State to State, registrations included in these statistics are those processed by the motor vehicle registration authorities in the States and Territories during the period. In some States, registrations of new motor vehicles are occasionally not recorded in the statistics until some time after registration.

4. A revised classification of motor vehicles has been adopted for publication of statistics of new motor vehicle registrations from 1 January 1972. Under the new classification vehicles are grouped into the following categories:

- Motor cars
- Station wagons
- Light commercial type vehicles — open
 - closed
- Trucks (carrying capacity 20 cwt and over) — rigid
 - articulated
- Other truck type vehicles
- Buses
- Motor cycles
- Tractors, plant, equipment, etc., trailers and caravans

The principal differences between this classification and that which it replaces are the following:

- (a) "Light commercial type vehicles" include those utilities, panel vans and trucks with carrying capacity under 20 cwt, and ambulances and hearses.
- (b) Utilities and panel vans with carrying capacity 20 cwt and over are now incorporated in "rigid trucks".
- (c) "Other truck type vehicles" consist of those truck type vehicles which are designed for purposes other than freight carrying, e.g. street flusher, fire engine, tow truck. Previously this category incorporated vehicles such as tankers and concrete agitators which are now classified as "trucks".

5. Because of the absence of details of carrying capacity on the registration records in certain States, it has been necessary to impute carrying capacity by reference to R.A.C. horsepower rating in order to ensure consistent treatment across Australia in these statistics. This affects some vehicles close to the 20 cwt carrying capacity limit separating trucks from light commercial type vehicles.

6. Direct comparisons of data from January 1972 onwards with data for previous periods can be made only for the categories motor cars, station wagons, buses and motor cycles. Data for the other categories are not strictly comparable between the revised classification and that which it replaces. However, to provide some degree of continuity, in Tables 4 and 5 previously published figures for utilities have been repeated under the heading "light commercial type vehicles — open" and those for panel vans, ambulances and hearses under the heading "light commercial type vehicles — closed". Previously published figures for trucks and other truck type vehicles have been repeated under similar headings but attention is drawn to the changes in definition of these categories outlined in paragraph 4 above.

7. In those tables where vehicles are shown classified according to make and R.A.C. rated horsepower, fractions of R.A.C. horsepower are omitted; for example, an R.A.C. rating of 20.9 hp is recorded as 20 hp.

8. In all States 'capital city' registrations refer to vehicles whose owners' addresses are located within the capital city statistical division as defined for 1971 population census purposes. Particulars of registrations in the Australian Capital Territory are included under 'capital city' and 'total' while those in the Northern Territory are included under 'total' only.

Motor Vehicles on Register

9. While different concepts of what constitutes "motor vehicles on register" at a particular point of time may be appropriate for different requirements, for the purpose of obtaining uniform statistics for all States and Territories it is necessary to adopt a common concept of what constitutes motor vehicles on register at a particular date. In this series, motor vehicles on register at a particular date are defined as those vehicles whose fees were paid for a period including the specified date, either in advance, or on that date, or retrospectively. However, all vehicles whose fees were not subsequently paid in respect of that particular date, even though at that date their registrations may not have been formally terminated, are excluded.

10. Censuses of motor vehicles were taken at 31 December 1955, 31 December 1962 and 30 September 1971. Preliminary results of the latter are contained in Table 19; final detailed census figures will be published in separate census bulletins to be issued for each State and Territory. The first of these bulletins is expected to be released during the first half of 1973.

11. Figures subsequent to 1962 in Table 18 are based on the December 1962 census figures which have been updated by the Bureau from data supplied by the various motor vehicle registration authorities. When the final results of the census taken at 30 September 1971 are available these intercensal estimates will be revised.

12. The figures shown in Table 19 conform to the revised motor vehicle classification already adopted in publications showing new motor vehicle registrations from 1 January 1972. For direct comparisons with data for previous periods, which are shown in Table 18, it is possible to aggregate the appropriate vehicle types shown in the new nine-way classification to correspond with those shown in the old three-way classification.

13. The figures of motor vehicles on register include diplomatic and consular vehicles and all Commonwealth-owned vehicles other than those belonging to the defence services.

14. The following symbols, where shown in tables, mean

- .. — nil or less than half the final digit shown or not applicable
- — break in continuity of series (where drawn across a column between two consecutive figures)

Any discrepancies between totals and sums of components in tables are due to rounding.
