7A. (1) A candidate shall perform such moot work in each year of his course as the Faculty determines.

(2) Where, in any year, a candidate fails to perform to the satisfaction of the Faculty the moot work required under sub-rule (1) to be performed by him in that year, the Faculty may require him to perform such additional moot work or other academic work as the Faculty determines.

(3) Where a candidate fails to perform to the satisfaction of the Faculty any additional moot work or other academic work that he is required under sub-rule (2) to perform and the candidate would, but for this sub-rule, qualify for admission to the degree of Bachelor of Laws, he shall not, unless the Faculty otherwise determines, be taken to have completed the approved course.

9. A candidate's performance in an examination for a subject shall be classified as 'fail', 'pass', 'credit', 'distinction' or 'high distinction'.

(b) subject to rule 10A, he completed those requirements within 10 years from the commencement of the academic year in which he passed the first unit of his course or within the time fixed under sub-rule 15 (2A) as the case may be.

10A. A candidate who fails to comply with paragraph 10(b) may, with the approval of the Faculty and subject to such conditions as the Faculty may impose, continue his studies for the course for the degree of Bachelor of Laws but shall be admitted to that degree only if he complies satisfactorily with the conditions, if any, imposed by the Faculty.

The degree with honours

11. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws with honours shall comply with the preceding rules of these Rules and shall, in addition satisfy the requirements of these Rules with respect to the Final Honours Examination.

Requirements
of honours
degree

12. (1) The Final Honours Examination shall consist of 2 parts, Part A and Part B.

Final Honours
Examination

(2) Part A shall be constituted, in the case of a candidate other than a prescribed candidate, by all subjects taken by the candidate in pursuance of rule 4.

(3) Part A shall be constituted, in the case of a prescribed candidate, by all subjects taken by the candidate in pursuance of rule 4A.

(4) Part B shall comprise a paper, of approximately 10,000 words, prepared by the candidate on a research topic approved by the Faculty.

(5) 70% of the total marks for the Final Honours Examination shall be allocated to Part A and 30% of the marks for the Final Honours Examination shall be allocated to Part B.

(6) Where a candidate has failed a subject referred to in rule 4 or rule 4A at his first attempt, for the purposes of ascertaining the mark to be allocated to Part A, the mark obtained at that first attempt shall be treated as the candidate's mark for that subject.

(7) Where the Faculty has, in pursuance of rule 15, granted credit to a candidate for a subject towards the degree of Bachelor of Laws, the Faculty shall, for the purposes of ascertaining the mark to be allocated to Part A, determine the mark that is to be treated as the candidate's mark for that subject.

(8) The Faculty may refuse to admit a candidate to the degree of Bachelor of Laws with honours where—

- (a) the candidate has failed 1 or more of the subjects that constitute Part A; or
- (b) the candidate has not attained a satisfactory standard in Part B.

Admission
to examination

13. (1) A candidate (other than a prescribed candidate) shall not be admitted to Part B of the Final Honours Examination unless, in the opinion of the Faculty, he has attained a satisfactory standard in the subjects taken by him in pursuance of sub-rules 4(1), 4(2) and 4(3) and in any other subjects taken by him in pursuance of rule 4.

(1A) A prescribed candidate shall not be admitted to Part B of the Final Honours Examination unless, in the opinion of the Faculty, he has attained a satisfactory standard in the subjects taken by him in pursuance of sub-rules 4A(3) and 4A(4) and in any other subjects taken by him in pursuance of rule 4A.

(1B) Where a candidate has failed a subject referred to in rule 4 or rule 4A at his first attempt, in determining whether the candidate has attained a satisfactory standard in that subject for the purposes of admission to Part B of the Final Honours Examination, the mark obtained at that first attempt shall be treated as the candidate's mark for that subject.

(1C) Where a prescribed candidate completed, before the commencement of this sub-rule, a subject taken under rule 4 for which he has not received credit under rule 4A, the Faculty may, for the purposes of determining whether the candidate should be admitted to Part B of the Honours Examination, have regard to the results obtained by the candidate in those subjects.

(2) The Faculty shall consider the eligibility of a candidate to be admitted to Part B of the Final Honours Examination as soon as possible after the candidate has sat for the annual examinations for all subjects taken by him under sub-rule 4(3), or 4A(4).

(2A) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this rule, the Faculty may admit to Part B of the Final Honours Examination a candidate who—

- (a) was not eligible under those provisions to be so admitted; and
- (b) has so performed in the subjects taken by him under sub-rule 4(4), or 4A(5) as, in the opinion of the Faculty, to justify his being so admitted.

(2B) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this rule the Faculty may, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, admit to Part B of the Final Honours Examination a candidate who was not eligible under those provisions to be so admitted, but whose results the Faculty considered to have been adversely affected by special circumstances.

(3) The Faculty may, at its discretion, and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, admit to Part B of the Final Honours Examination a candidate who has transferred to the University from the law school of another university and who has attained at the University a satisfactory standard in the subjects taken by him under rule 4 or 4A.

(4) A candidate who is admitted to Part B of the Final Honours Examination shall submit the research paper referred to in sub-rule 12(4) to the Faculty on or before the prescribed date in the final year of his course of study for the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

(5) Where, because of course variations, a candidate will be attempting in his final year fewer subjects than those specified in sub-rule 4(4), or 4A(5), the Faculty may, at its discretion, require submission of the research paper on or before the prescribed date in the year preceding the final year of his course.

(5AA) For the purposes of sub-rules (4) and (5), 'the prescribed date' means—

(a) in relation to a full-time student—15 March;
and

(b) in relation to a part-time student—15 May.

(5A) The Faculty may, in such circumstances as it thinks fit, fix a date for the submission by a candidate of a research paper that is later than the date specified in such of sub-rules (4) and (5) as applies in relation to that candidate.

(6) Unless the Faculty otherwise decides, a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws with honours shall not be permitted to attempt Part B of the Final Honours Examination more than once.

(6A) Where a candidate who has previously attempted Part B of the Final Honours Examination is permitted to attempt that part of that examination again, the research paper prepared by the candidate in pursuance of sub-rule 12(4) shall be on a topic other than a topic previously approved by the Faculty in respect of that candidate for the purposes of that sub-rule.

(6B) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this rule, the Faculty may refuse to admit a candidate to Part B of the Final Honours Examination if he has failed a subject referred to in rule 4 or 4A.

(7) In this rule, 'final year' means, in relation to a candidate, the year in which, if he successfully completes all of the subjects taken by him in that year, he will have completed all of the subjects required to be taken by him for the purpose of rule 4 or 4A.

14. (1) There shall be 3 classes of honours—first class; second class, division A; and second class, division B.

Classification
of honours

(2) A candidate who has been so classified and has qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Laws may be admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Laws with honours.

Admission to status

15. (1) The Faculty may grant to a candidate who has performed work or passed a subject—

Admission
to status

(a) in another faculty; or

(b) at another university in Australia, or at another university outside Australia approved by the Faculty, being work performed, or a subject passed, after matriculation at that university, such credit for that work or subject towards the Degree of Bachelor of Laws as the Faculty determines.

(1A) Unless in a particular case the Faculty otherwise determines, a candidate shall not be granted credit for work performed, or a subject passed, more than 10 years before the date on which the candidate applied for credit for that work or subject.

(2) Where the Faculty so grants credit to a candidate—

- (a) the Faculty shall determine the further subjects, being not less than 5 and not including the subject Evidence or the subject Practice and Procedure, that the candidate is required to take to satisfy the requirements of these Rules for the degree; and
- (b) unless the candidate has been given credit for work performed in respect of the law of New South Wales relating to procedure and pleading, he shall, in addition to satisfying the requirements of these Rules in relation to the subjects referred to in paragraph (a), take the subject Practice and Procedure.

(2A) Where the Faculty grants credit to a candidate under this rule, the Faculty shall fix a time, not being more than 10 years from the date of admission of the candidate to the course for the degree of Bachelor of Laws in the University, within which the candidate must comply with the requirements of these Rules.

(3) The Faculty may grant a candidate credit for Legal Method where the candidate has performed work or passed a subject or subjects in law at a tertiary institution, other than a university if—

- (a) the institution is approved by the Faculty; and
- (b) the standard required by the institution in that work or subject or those subjects is, in the opinion of the Faculty, satisfactory.

(3A) The Faculty may grant to a candidate who has passed a subject relating to an area of law as part of a degree course offered by a college of advanced education approved by the Faculty for the purposes of this sub-rule such credit for that subject towards the degree of Bachelor of Laws as the Faculty determines, having regard to the content of that subject and the standard at which it was taught.

(4) The Faculty may grant credit to a candidate for subjects completed in the course for articulated clerks conducted for the Council of Legal Education of Victoria by the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology where the candidate had completed that course and has also been admitted as a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

(5) A candidate referred to in sub-rule (4) shall be required to complete not less than 8 subjects as determined by Faculty, in order to qualify for the degree of Bachelor of Laws and the subjects so determined shall not include a subject that is equivalent to a subject that the candidate completed in the Council of Legal Education course.

Amendments

16. Where, after the commencement of this rule, an amendment of these Rules that affects the courses of study that may be taken by candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws or the degree of Bachelor of Laws with honours is made, the amendment does not apply to such a candidate who, before the making of the amendment, had completed 1 or more subjects of a course of study approved by the Faculty, unless—

Application of amending rules

- (a) the student elects that the amendment apply to him and submits to the Faculty proposed alterations to his course that are in accordance with these Rules as so amended and the Faculty approved those alterations; or
- (b) the Faculty otherwise determines.

Criteria adopted in application of the Academic Progress (School of General Studies) Statute and the Academic Progress (Faculty of Arts) Rules

The following working rules have been adopted by the Faculty of Arts and give a detailed interpretation of the requirements of the Academic Progress of Students (Faculty of Arts) Rules. Students may obtain copies of these rules from the Faculty Secretary's office.

1. Progress in any one unit

(a) A student who fails a unit at two annual examinations may not re-enrol in that unit without the approval of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned.

(b) A student excluded from a unit in another faculty or university may not enrol in that unit as part of an Arts course without the approval of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned.

2. Overall progress

(a) A student who in any year has failed to pass more than half of the units for which he was enrolled in that year and the previous year of his course will be liable to exclusion.

- (b) A student who fails in all units in which he is enrolled in his first year of attendance at this University may be excluded from the Faculty forthwith.

This rule applies to all students except that a student transferring from another faculty in this or another university who, in the opinion of the Faculty of Arts has an unsatisfactory academic record, may be refused admission or admitted only on condition that he pass a given number of units in his first year.

The procedures are as follows:

(1) New students

- (a) Students who in their first year enrol in units to the value of four and who fail in units to the value of three and withdraw from or fail the remaining unit (or units) are liable to exclusion from the Faculty. Whether the student is excluded or not will depend on his examination performances, and on his matriculation pass. A student in this category who is not excluded will be warned that failure to pass units to the value of two as a part-time student or units to the value of three as a full-time student in the following year will result in exclusion.
- (b) Students who fail in units to the value of one or more will receive a warning that failure to pass in more than half the units (in terms of unit value) in which they enrol in the first two years of their enrolment will render them liable to exclusion. (Part-time students who fail in units to the value of two in their first year of enrolment will be required to pass units to the value of two in the year of their next enrolment or be liable to exclusion).

(2) Students transferring from other faculties and/or tertiary institutions

- (a) Students who have been excluded from another faculty at this University or another tertiary institution who apply for admission before a period of two years will not be admitted unless there is clear evidence that they are likely to succeed in subjects offered by the Faculty.
- (b) Students transferring from another faculty and/or tertiary institution with a record of failures who are admitted to the Faculty will be placed on a condition, as set out below:
 - (i) students who have failed in all the units in which they enrolled in their first year may be refused admission or admitted on condition that they pass units to the value of two as a part-time student or units to the value of three as a full-time student or be liable to exclusion from the Faculty.
(Students who were part-time and who failed all units in which they were enrolled in the first year of enrolment will be required to pass units to the value of two in the year of their next enrolment or be liable to exclusion from the Faculty);
 - (ii) students who have accumulated four or more failures may be refused admission or admitted on condition

- that they pass units to the value of two as a part-time student or units to the value of three as a full-time student or be liable to exclusion from the Faculty;
- (iii) students who have accumulated fewer than four failures will be warned that their previous academic record will be taken into account in the application of Rule 2(a).

3. Withdrawals from units

Withdrawals made after the first Friday of third term will be counted as failures. Withdrawals made during second term and up until the first Friday of third term which are not satisfactorily explained to the Faculty may be counted as failures.

4. Exclusions

No student who has been excluded from the Faculty will be re-admitted during the following two academic years from the date of his exclusion. Admission after that date will be conditional on the student's convincing Faculty that he is better able to cope with the course than he was in the first instance. A student re-admitted after exclusion will normally be placed on a condition that in the next year of enrolment he pass units to the value of two as a part-time student or units to the value of three as a full-time student or be liable to exclusion from the Faculty.

5. Appeals

Decisions to exclude are made by the Faculty and students will be given an opportunity to show cause why they should not be excluded. Excluded students previously enrolled in the Faculty of Arts in this University may submit a written appeal against the Faculty's decision to the Board of the School of General Studies.

7. Readmission

Action taken under the Academic Progress Rules is effective for the following two academic years and thereafter may be reviewed on the grounds that the person is better able to cope with the course than he was in the first instance. All cases of re-admission after two years must be considered by Faculty.

Criteria adopted in application of the Academic Progress (School of General Studies) Statute and the Academic Progress (Faculty of Economics) Rules

1. Progress in individual units

- (a) A student is liable to exclusion from the examinations for any unit in which his performance of class work is unsatisfactory to the Head of the Department. Such exclusion will be counted as a failure in the examinations for that unit.
- (b) A student who —
 - (i) fails in a semester unit at two semester examinations or in a full-year unit at two annual examinations; or
 - (ii) has not passed in a particular unit after enrolling in it on three occasions;

is liable to exclusion from further enrolments in that unit if it is a unit offered by the Faculty of Economics. If it is a compulsory unit he is liable to exclusion from the Faculty. If the unit is offered by a department in another faculty, the student may not re-enrol in it without the approval of the Faculty of Economics on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned.

2. Progress in the course as a whole

(a) A student who received a result (other than 'withdrawn') for any unit —

(i) in the case of a full-time student — in his first year of enrolment in the BEc course;

(ii) in the case of a part-time student — in his first two years of enrolment in the BEc course, and who does not obtain four out of the possible eight points is liable to exclusion from further enrolment in the Faculty.

(The term 'full-time student' in this paragraph means a student who commences the academic year with a full-time load and who has not taken such employment as to lead the Faculty to classify him as a part-time student, whether or not withdrawals have reduced his load to that normal for a part-time student.)

(b) A student who, in any two successive years of his course, has failed to obtain more than half the possible total number of points available from the units for which he enrolled in those two years is liable to exclusion from further enrolment in the Faculty.† In most cases Faculty will not seek to exclude a part-time student who obtains half the possible total number of points available from the units for which he was enrolled (as a part-time student) in any two successive years.

(c) Where a student is excluded from further enrolment in the Faculty he may also be excluded from further enrolment in units offered by those Departments in the Faculty in whose units he has failed or been counted under these Rules as having failed.

(Students are also reminded of the provisions of rule 11 of the Courses of Study (Degree of Bachelor of Economics) Rules concerning the time limit for completion of a BEc course.)

3. Specific progress conditions

(a) If, after consideration of the case of a student liable to exclusion from further enrolment in the Faculty on the basis of his progress in the course as a whole, the Faculty does not exclude him, the student will normally be required to pass units to the value of four points as a part-time student or units to the value of six points as a full-time student in the year of his next enrolment or be liable to exclusion from the Faculty.

(b) Where a student during the year requests a suspension of his course and this is approved, any specific progress

†Note: Where a student in a second or later year fails in all units in that year but is not liable to exclusion, a pass in units to the value of four points as a part-time student or units to the value of six points as a full-time student in the next year of enrolment will normally be adequate even where he has not obtained more than half the possible total number of points available from the units for which he enrolled in the two years.

condition applying to his current enrolment will normally apply from the date of resumption of his course.

4. Withdrawals

(a) Withdrawals from units will be counted as failures —

- (i) in the case of a full-year unit, if the withdrawal is after the first Friday of third term;
- (ii) in the case of a first semester unit, if the withdrawal is after the thirty-first day of May;
- (iii) in the case of a second semester unit, if the withdrawal is after the thirtieth day of September.

(b) A student with a record of withdrawals, for which reasons acceptable to the Faculty have not been given, may be required to pass units to the value of four points as a part-time student or units to the value of six points as a full-time student or be liable to exclusion from further enrolment in the Faculty, and/or may be informed that withdrawal from any further unit in the year of his next enrolment will be treated as a failure unless reasons are given which are acceptable to the Faculty.

5. Exclusions from further enrolment in the Faculty

No student who has been excluded from the Faculty will be readmitted during the following two academic years from the date of his exclusion. Admission after that date will be at the discretion of Faculty.

6. Academic Progress Committee

Decisions to exclude students from further enrolment in the Faculty and from further enrolment in units offered by the Faculty are made by the Academic Progress Committee of the Faculty. Students are given an opportunity to show cause why they should not be excluded, and those who are excluded from re-enrolment in the Faculty may submit a written appeal against the Faculty's decision to the Board of the School of General Studies.

Academic Progress of Students (Faculty of Law) Rules

1. (1) In these Rules —

'enrol' includes re-enrol and 'enrolment' includes re-enrolment;

'Faculty' means the Faculty of Law;

'the Board' means the Board of the School.

(2) A reference in these Rules to a 'course', 'subject' or 'unit' means a course or a subject or unit of a degree, as the case may be, for which the Faculty is responsible.

2. (1) Subject to this rule, where a person —

(a) has previously been enrolled in the University or in another university or institute of higher learning or education; and

(b) has not, in the opinion of the Faculty, achieved satisfactory academic progress in the University or in that other university or institute of higher learning or education, the Faculty may direct that the person —

(c) shall not be admitted to a course of study

(d) shall not be permitted to continue in a course of study

(e) shall not be permitted to enrol in a subject or unit; or

(f) shall be permitted to enrol in a subject or unit only upon specified conditions.

(2) Before giving a direction under the last preceding sub-rule, the Faculty shall give the person concerned an opportunity of making representations to the Faculty with respect to his enrolment and shall take into account any representations so made to the Faculty by the person.

(3) A person in respect of whom a direction has been given under sub-rule (1) of this rule may appeal to the Board against the direction.

(4) Sub-rules (2) and (3) of this rule do not apply to a person who, before applying for enrolment, had not previously been enrolled in the Faculty.

Criteria adopted in application of the Academic Progress (School of General Studies) Statute and the Academic Progress (Faculty of Law) Rules

The following is a statement of the Faculty's policies which are applied pursuant to the Academic Progress (School of General Studies) Statute and the Academic Progress (Faculty of Law) Rules. It is emphasised, however, that these policies are not applied rigidly and that the case of each individual person is considered by the Faculty on its merits.

Statement of Academic Progress

1. (a) This statement applies to students enrolled for the degree of Bachelor of Laws and to students enrolled for the combined courses in Arts and Law, Asian Studies and Law, and Economics and Law.

(b) References to a failure in a subject include a failure in a subject in the Arts, Asian Studies or Economics component of a combined course.

2. (a) The Faculty may review the academic progress of any person who fails in a subject at the annual examination.

(b) In reviewing academic progress the failure of a person to pass an examination shall, except where in a particular case the Faculty otherwise determines, be taken to include:

- (i) withdrawal from any subject at any time during the academic year unless evidence establishes illness or other personal difficulties;
- (ii) the failure of a person to sit for or the absence or exclusion of a person from the annual examination in a subject for which he is enrolled.

3. (a) Unless special circumstances are shown, the Faculty will direct that a person be not permitted to re-enrol in a subject or course where:

- (i) he fails two or more examinations in the subjects for which he is enrolled in his first year and obtains in his first-year subjects an average of less than 50%;
- (ii) he fails three or more examinations during his course;
- (iii) he fails an examination twice in any subject.

(b) Examples of special circumstances which are taken into account are as follows:

- (i) a record of results which establishes that a person has rehabilitated himself during the later years of his course of study;
- (ii) evidence showing that a person has had a record of illness during the course supported by medical certificates produced to the Academic Registrar.

4. Wherever a person's academic progress is unsatisfactory the Faculty may impose conditions:

- (a) limiting or prescribing the number of subjects for which he may enrol in any subsequent year; or
- (b) specifying particular subjects for which a person must enrol in any subsequent year.

5. Where a student is undertaking a subject in the Faculty towards the degree of another faculty or is undertaking a subject as a non-degree enrolment, the Faculty may direct that the student be not permitted to re-enrol in that subject if he obtains a result of less than 45% or is not admitted to the annual examination in that subject or fails an examination twice in any subject.

6. Where a person has failed subjects in any other faculty in this University or any other university or any institute of higher learning or education the Faculty may take account of such failures as if they were failures in a course of study for which this Faculty is responsible.

7. Where students are undertaking a combined course in Arts and Law, Asian Studies and Law or Economics and Law, their academic progress will be reviewed each year by both Faculties. Unsatisfactory progress in a combined course may lead to exclusion from one or both Faculties.

Academic Progress of Students (Faculty of Science) Rules

1. (1) In these Rules—

'enrol' includes re-enrol and 'enrolment' includes re-enrolment;
'Faculty' means the Faculty of Science;
'the Board' means the Board of the School.

(2) A reference in these Rules to a 'course', 'subject' or 'unit' means a course or a subject or unit of a degree, as the case may be, for which the Faculty is responsible.

2. (1) Subject to this rule, where a person—

- (a) has previously been enrolled in the University or in another university or institute of higher learning or education; and
- (b) has not, in the opinion of the Faculty, achieved satisfactory academic progress in the University or in that other university or institute of higher learning or education, the Faculty may direct that the person—
- (c) shall not be admitted to a course of study;
- (d) shall not be permitted to continue in a course of study;
- (e) shall not be permitted to enrol in a subject or unit; or
- (f) shall be permitted to enrol in a subject or unit only upon specified conditions.

(2) Before giving a direction under the last preceding sub-rule, the Faculty shall give the person concerned an opportunity of making representations to the Faculty with respect to his enrolment and shall take into account any representations so made to the Faculty by the person.

(3) A person in respect of whom a direction has been given under sub-rule (1) of this rule may appeal to the Board against the direction.

(4) Sub-rules (2) and (3) of this rule do not apply to a person who, before applying for enrolment, had not previously been enrolled in the Faculty of Science.

Criteria adopted in application of the Academic Progress (School of General Studies) Statute and the Academic Progress (Faculty of Science) Rules

1. Progress in any one unit

- (a) A student who fails a unit twice may not re-enrol in that unit without the approval of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned.
- (b) A student who has been excluded from a unit in another faculty or university or has failed such a unit twice may not enrol in that or an equivalent unit without the approval of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the department concerned.

2. Overall progress

- (a) A student who on his first enrolment at this University does not obtain a Pass Division 1 (P1) in any of the units which were approved for him at the beginning of that academic year shall have his progress reviewed by the Faculty and may be liable to exclusion on the grounds of unsatisfactory academic progress.
- (b) A student will be liable to exclusion on the grounds of unsatisfactory academic progress if he does not pass at P1 level at least half of the units (in terms of points value) for which he was enrolled in the year under review and the previous year of his course.

This rule applies to all students except that a student transferring from another faculty in this or another university who, in the opinion of the Faculty of Science, has an unsatisfactory academic record, may be refused admission or admitted only on condition that he pass a given number of units in his first year.

- (c) A student previously enrolled in the Faculty of Science in another university may be refused admission to the Faculty if he is not eligible to re-enrol in the Science Faculty at the other university.
- (d) Where a student at another university fails in all the units which in accordance with the rules of that university comprise the full academic year's work, he will be considered to have failed in the number of units which comprise the corresponding academic year in the Faculty of Science of this University.

3. Withdrawals from units

Withdrawals from units will be counted as failure—

- (a) in the case of a unit extending over a full year, if the withdrawal is made after the last day of second term;
- (b) in the case of a unit extending over the first semester, if the withdrawal is made after the thirty-first day of May;
- (c) in the case of a unit extending over the second semester, if the withdrawal is made after the thirtieth day of September.

4. Readmission

A student who has been excluded from the Faculty will not normally be readmitted during the following two academic years from the date of his exclusion unless at the time of exclusion the Committee on Unsatisfactory Progress resolved to inform the candidate that he might apply for reconsideration of his enrolment one academic year after the date of exclusion.

Readmission will not be approved if in the Faculty's judgment such a candidate is in no better position to pursue successfully his academic studies than he was in the first instance.
