

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY
FACULTY OF ORIENTAL STUDIES
Department of South Asian and Buddhist Studies

ANNUAL REPORT 1966

-oOo-

List of Staff

Professor J.W. de Jong, Ph.D. (Ley), Head of Department
T. Rajapatirana, M.A. (Ceylon), Lecturer
A. Yuyama, B.A. (Osaka), M.A. (Tokyo), Research Assistant

-oO-

This Department provides opportunities for the study of Sanskrit, which is of fundamental importance for the study of Indian Civilization and for the study of some aspects of Indonesian Languages and Literatures. It is hoped that in the future other Indian languages will be added to the curriculum.

This year Sanskrit I was offered. Thirteen students were enrolled, and the examination results of all were satisfactory. In 1967 Sanskrit II and Sanskrit II Honours will be offered.