

The Australian National University Public Lecture

The 53rd card: the Influence of the Jester in Society

by Dr Earle Hackett

Wednesday 8 September 1982
at 8.15pm.

LEONARD HUXLEY
LECTURE THEATRE
COMPUTER SERVICES
CENTRE BUILDING,
MILLS ROAD, ANU.

Dr Earle Hackett is a Visiting Fellow at University House, ANU, and well-known ABC broadcaster. His weekly ABC radio talks, 'The Body Program', explaining medicine and science, have made him a well-known voice in Canberra and around Australia.

This lecture is free and interested members of the public are warmly invited to attend. No bookings needed.

Further inquiries to University Information, telephone 492229.